ITINERARY

Day 1 : DAILY SOGANLI VALLEY - TASKINPASA - KAYAKAPI TOUR ITINERARY

Lunch Included

After picking you up from your hotel early in the morning, we will go to Soganli Valley where there is lots of churches which are date back from the 9th to 13th centuries.

Then, we head to Taskinpasa which is a typical Cappadocian Village where there is a Medrese (theological school) and an antiquated mosque, both built by the Seljuk period.

After we have our lunch break, we will go and visit monastaries in Keslik with one of the biggest monastic areas in Cappadocia.

There is a lot of churches are carved into rocks and its the biggest refectory in the whole Keslik area. Then, we will go to visit an old Greek Village in Cemil and it's small village in Urgup that is a place settled by Christians long time ago.

Some people still love in caves now and the main industry is farming. The last spot of the tour is in Kayakapi where there is an old Christian City.
