2 Day Amasya & Hattusa Tour From Ankara

Amasya is one of the provinces which is distinct both with its natural setup and historical values it holds. It was the homeland of the famous geographer Strabo. Located in a narrow cleft of the Yesilirmak (Iris) river, it has a history of 3000 years during which many civilizations left priceless remains of their times. Hattusa and Yazilikaya that we will visit on the way to Amasya, hold a very significance place for Hittite Civilization.

ITINERARY

Day 1 : Ankara - Hattusha Tour & Arrival to Amasya

Lunch and Dinner Included

Pick up between 08:30 am - 9:30 from your hotel in Ankara City Center. After about 2,5 - 3 hours' drive, we reach Hattusa area where we will visit Hattusha, the Hittite Capital that was registered to Unesco World Heritage List in 1986. Hattusa dates back to 13th Century and even further back. The archaeological site of Hattusa, former capital of the Hittite Empire, is notable for its urban organization, hosts the types of construction that have been well preserved i.e. temples, royal residences, fortifications, the rich ornamentation of the Lions' Gate and the Royal Gate, the ensemble of rock art at Yazilikaya. The city enjoyed considerable influence in Anatolia and Northern Syria in the 2nd millennium B.C. As well as above mentioned structures, you will see the famous rock sanctuary of Yazilikaya which was an open-air temple with two natural chambers cut into the bedrock. In Yazilikaya, a sacred and memorial place for Hittites, you will also see the famous Twelve Hittite gods of the underworld. After lunch, we will head from Amasya which will take about 2,5 hours' drive. Once we reach, we transfer you to your hotel in Amasya and check in. The rest of time is yours. Dinner at hotel. Overnight in Amasya.
