ITINERARY

Day 1 : DAILY "AGZIKARA HANI" TOUR

Lunch Included

Pick up from your hotel in the morning and then depart for daily Agzikara Hani Tour. The Agzikara Hani, 16km northeast of Aksaray, was built between 1231 and 1239. Afterwards, we will visit the Aksaray Museum that you certainly won't have problems finding this massive museum en route from the otogar (bus station) along the main road to Aksaray center. The revamped displays covering early Cappadocian human history have excellent English information boards, but the prize exhibit is the small collection of mummies unearthed in the Ihlara Valley. Finally, we will see the curious Egri Minare built in 1236 that leans at an angle of 27 degrees which in the older part of Aksaray, inevitably, known to locals as the 'Turkish Tower of Pisa'. After the end of the tour, drop back to your hotel.
