5 Day Ankara City - Cooking Tour

Ankara is the capital and the second biggest city in Turkey which is located in the central Anatolian Region of the country. The history of the city dates back to Hittites, even further back. As the place welcomed civilizations for long time, the architecture of the city reflects its varied history. In Ankara, due to being the capital city, you can see many government offices and embassies of foreign countries. Ankara is a beautiful city with its museums, parks, historical places and its modern day life style. Ankara is also well known with the Mausoleum of Ataturk.
