Day 1 : Daily Half Day Ankara City Tour

Pick up between 08:30 – 09:30 from your hotel in Ankara City Center. We will visit the award winning MUSEUM OF ANATOLIAN CIVILIZATIONS which was established in 1921 and reached its present structure in 1968. In the museum, you can simply see the summary of human civilization where you can see the artefacts from Paleolithic Age (8000 BC), Neolithic Age (8000-5500 BC), Chalcolithic (Copper-Stone) Age (5500-3000 BC) to present time. The museum has a perfect exhibition about historic Anatolian cultures like Hittites, Phrygians, Urartu's and Late Hittites. Next stop will be THE ANKARA CASTLE which is one of the oldest sites in Ankara and is believed to date back to late Hittites period 1600 BC. The castle was used by Roman, Seljuk and Ottoman empires. The castle overlooking the city contains a small neighborhood of old historic houses and a local market which you can enjoy. After that, we will visit THE MAUSELOUM OF ATATURK. Ataturk the started and lead the independence war of Turkey and saved the country and he is also the founder of democratic and secular Turkish Republic. Here, you can see hall of honor, the mausoleum, the lion's road, the towers with symbolic meanings, ceremonial ground, change or guard's ceremony and museum.

After the tour, transfer back to your hotel.
