ITINERARY

Day 1 : Daily Hattusa Tour from Ankara

Lunch Included

Pick up between 08:30 - 09:30 from your hotel in Ankara City Center. After about 2,5 - 3 hours' drive we reach Hattusa area where we will visit Hattusa, the Hittite Capital that was registered to Unesco World Heritage List in 1986. Hattusa dates back to 13th Century and even further back. The archaeological site of Hattusa, former capital of the Hittite Empire, is notable for its urban organization, hosts the types of construction that have been well preserved i.e. temples, royal residences, fortifications, the rich ornamentation of the Lions Gate & the Royal Gate and the ensemble of rock art at Yazilikaya. The city enjoyed considerable influence in Anatolia and Northern Syria in the 2nd millennium B.C. As well as above mentioned structures, you will see the famous rock sanctuary of Yazılıkaya which was an open-air temple with two natural chambers cut into the bedrock. In Yazılıkaya, a sacred and memorial place for Hittites, you will also see the famous Twelve Hittite gods of the underworld. After the tour, transfer back to your hotel.

We hope your tour was a memorable one and we look forward to seeing you in the future on another our tour. Thank you for choosing us.
