The Sema represent all a mystical journey of men's spiritual journey as a man who reached maturity and greater perfection, so as to love and to be of service to the whole creation, to all creatures without discriminating in regard to belief or race. When dervish's arms are open, his right hand directed to sky and get ready to receive God's beneficence, gazing his left hand turns toward the earth of giving what he received to poor, he turns from right to the left, pivoting around the heart. This is his way of conveying God's spiritual present to the people upon whom God "looks with a Divine" watch fullness. Revolving around hearth, from right to the left, he embraces all of kinds of human and all the creation with affection and love... When the ceremony ends, our private minibus will be waiting for you in front of that places to take you back to your hotel.
