ITINERARY

Day 1 : DAILY ERZINCAN CULTURAL TOUR

We will pick you up from the hotel in the morning. We will visit today:

Erzincan is the central district of Erzincan in Eastern Anatolia in Turkey. The city has been the capital of Mengücek people in history.

Girlevik Waterfall: Caglayan, Turkey's resort located in Falls Girlevik one of the big waterfalls. The waterfall comes from the mountains down the floor like three separate waterfalls. But from a distance, this it is possible to see the beauty exactly. Waterfall on weekends. One-on-one for picnics and sitres. Erzincan city center is 35 km away.

Eksisu: In addition to hosting many bird species, Eksisu Reeds. At the beginning, the water source of the soda was gushed from the bosom to the city's economy contributes. Some of the reeds are reserved as promenade and while you are having a picnic here, there is soda water. It is possible to drink to the fullest. Eksisu with go-kart track, water bike pool, family restaurant and healing spas is 10 km away from Erzincan.

Mamahatun Caravanserai: It is estimated that the caravanserai, which has no construction inscription, was built in the 12th century. There is a historical bath right next to the caravanserai and it serves.

Abrenk (Vank) Church and Stalagmites: This is one of the most robust Armenian monasteries in Anatolia, but not many unknowns. Surp Davit (Abrank) Armenian Monastery, Üçpınar village of Tercan It is located near Vank Mountain. A chapel surrounded by walls on the hill above the monastery and it's a little further away, two of them standing, one knocked down, three stalagmites there is.

Dark Canyon: Kemaliye district of Erzincan in the canyon, one of Turkey's largest canyon. Base Jump, Canoe and Rafting events are organized in the canyon. We will give to you free time for this activities.

After the tour, transfer back to your hotel. Overnight in Erzincan.
